Kansas Senate Confirms Lana Gordon as Secretary of Labor

TOPEKA, Kan – The Kansas Department of Labor is proud to announce the confirmation of Lana Gordon as Secretary of Labor.

Lana has been serving as Interim Secretary since Sept. 21, 2012. Previously, she served in the Kansas House of Representatives for 12 years. Lana served as co-Chairman of the Labor and Economic Development Committee for the National Conference of State Legislators and a Board member of the National Foundation of Women Legislators. She also is a former small business owner and educator.

“I am honored to be confirmed as Secretary and appreciate the confidence Governor Brownback has demonstrated in me,” said Lana. “I am proud to be working with the dedicated staff at the Department of Labor and look forward to serving the citizens of Kansas.

The mission of the Kansas Department of Labor is to advance the economic well-being of all Kansans through responsive workforce services.
